

Teaching Evaluations Summary

Gailius Praninskas

January 2026

Overview

This document summarizes student teaching evaluations from courses taught at the London School of Economics (2023–2025). All ratings are on a 5-point scale. The “Overall Satisfaction” metric corresponds to the question: “Overall, I am satisfied with the teaching by this teacher on the course.”

LSE Term-Time Courses

Course	Term	Rating	School Avg.	n
EC317 Labour Economics	WT 2024/25	5.0	4.5	11
EC317 Labour Economics	AT 2024/25	4.8	4.5	18
EC307 Development Economics	AT 2025/26	4.7	4.5	4
EC400 Maths & Statistics (MSc)	AT 2024/25	4.6	—	12
EC400 Maths & Statistics (MSc)	AT 2023/24	4.6	—	5
EC2C1 Econometrics II	WT 2023/24	4.5	—	2
EC1A3 Microeconomics I	AT 2023/24	4.6	—	19

Table 1: LSE term-time course evaluations (class teacher)

LSE Summer School

Course	Session	Rating	Course Avg.
EC260 Political Economy of Public Policy	Summer 2024	4.8	4.1
EC260 Political Economy of Public Policy	Summer 2025	4.78	4.27
FM250 Finance	Summer 2024	4.8	4.6
FM250 Finance	Summer 2025	4.67	4.57
EC101 Introductory Microeconomics	Summer 2024	4.7	4.0

Table 2: LSE Summer School evaluations (class teacher)

University of Amsterdam

Course	Year	Rating	Course Avg.	Scale
Principles of Economics I	2019/20	9.2	7.8	/10

Table 3: Retained University of Amsterdam evaluations (teaching assistant)

Selected Student Comments

EC317 Labour Economics (WT 2024/25)

- “Gailius is the absolute best. Amazing classes. Extremely patient with students and seems to really enjoy teaching.”
- “Gailius is a fantastic teacher who cares about his students and their learning. He is always willing to answer questions and help students better understand material.”
- “Whether in classes or office hours, Gailius could always explain concepts clearly and intuitively, making sure that they were completely understood. [...] I always looked forward to the discussion in his classes and office hours. Overall, Gailius was a brilliant teacher and I am very glad to have been his student.”
- “I heard a rumour that teacher’s bonuses are based on these feedback surveys, so, if that is the case, I would like to state that Gailius definitely deserves a bonus!”

EC317 Labour Economics (AT 2024/25)

- “Gailius has done a wonderful job in class, making it a place where myself and others are comfortable to participate and learn. I appreciate his openness to questions and providing feedback.”
- “Gailius is very clear. He works through problems methodologically and in a way that clarifies any issues in the official solutions.”
- “Very willing to answer any question and clarify confusing concepts into great details, care so much about students’ learning, friendly, wanting to tailor classes into what students need.”

EC400 Mathematics & Statistics (AT 2024/25)

- “Gailius is an experienced teacher. I really liked that he explains some of the concepts in class before we start doing the problem sets.”
- “The class presentations were particularly helpful, especially for exam preparation, as I could refer back to the material. [...] The teacher was very approachable, making it easy to ask questions and clear up any confusion.”

EC1A3 Microeconomics I (AT 2023/24)

- “Gailius is a fantastic teacher. He is excellent at explaining the content covered each week and his solutions to the weekly quizzes and problem sets are very easy to follow. He allows room for questions, which ensures everyone in the class is learning through others. He is also extremely friendly which is always a welcomed bonus.”

FM250 Finance (Summer 2024)

- “Mr. Gailius Praninskas is a fantastic professor, if you simply follow his lessons, you will be able to do easily your exam.”
- “TA – Gilius was a very good teacher and funny (10/10).”

EC101 Introductory Microeconomics (Summer 2024)

- “Prof. Gailius!! So awesome.”
- “The sessions conducted by Mr. Praninskas.”